

Life Writing Matters in Europe Table of Contents

- Marijke Huisman - Introduction: Life Writing Matters in Europe;
- Catherine Viollet - European French-Language Life Writing in the Late Eighteenth and Early Nineteenth Centuries;
- Elena Gretchanaia - Cultural Models: Russian Eighteenth- and Early Nineteenth-Century Francophone Life Writing;
- Marijke Huisman - Translation Politics: Foreign Autobiographies on the Nineteenth Century Dutch Book Market;
- Paweł Rodak - Past, Present, and Future of Autobiography Competitions and Archives in Poland;
- Christian Moser - Museums of the Self: Autobiographic Memory and the Cultural Practice of Collecting;
- Sabine Kim - Voices and Inscriptions: Making Sense(s) in Autobiography;
- Nataliya Rodigina & Tatiana Saburova - Changing Identity Formations in Nineteenth-Century Russian Intellectuals' Autobiographies;
- Gunnthorunn Gudmundsdottir - A Writer's Life: The Modernist Group and Questions of Identity in Autobiographical Writing;
- Esra Almas - Self and The City. Locus of Identity in Orhan Pamuk's Istanbul: Memories and the City;
- Anna Izabela Cichoń -Construction of Identity and the Role of Autobiography in V.S. Naipaul's Work;
- Barbara Henkes - Letter-Writing and the Construction of a Transnational Family: A Private Correspondence between the Netherlands and Germany, 1920–1949;
- Eva Rovers - A Dutch Collector with a German Heart: The Regional Aspect of Life Writing in the Case of Helene Kröller-Müller (1869-1939);
- Lisbeth Larsson - Uses of Biography: The Swedish Version;
- Mineke Bosch - Well-Behaved Women Seldom Make History, But If They Do... Reflections on Gender and Biography;
- Anneke Ribberink - Margaret Thatcher and Gro Harlem Brundtland: Two Women Prime Ministers from the Spectre of a Comparative Biography;
- Martins Kaprans - Constructing Generational Identity in Post-Communist Autobiographies: the Case of Latvia;
- Leena Kurvet-Käosaar - An Anthology of Lives: Jaan Kross's Kallid Kaasteelised and Estonian Memorial Culture;
- Ioana Luca - Post-Communist Life Writing and Memory Maps